

Key Terms

Knowledge Organiser- Water Water Everywhere

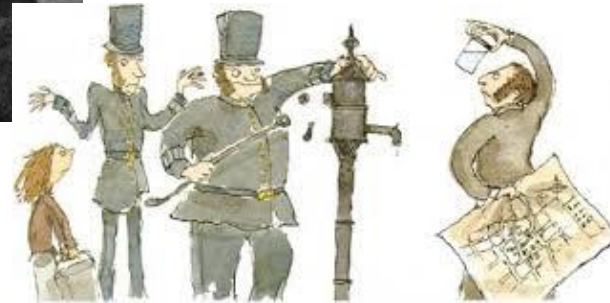

Canal	An artificial waterway constructed to allow the passage of boats.
River	A large natural stream of water flowing in a channel to the sea, a lake, or another river.
Barge	A long narrow boat used on canals
Lock	A lock is a device used for raising and lowering boats, between stretches of water of different levels
Dolly tub	An apparatus for agitating and washing
Washboard	A board made of ridged wood or a sheet of corrugated zinc, used when washing clothes as a surface against which to scrub them
John Snow	He discovered cholera was caused by pollution in the water not from the air.
Broad street pump.	A severe outbreak of cholera occurred in 1854 near Broad Street

John Snow

John Snow couldn't convince other doctors and scientists that cholera, a deadly disease, was spread when people drank contaminated water

Canal boat through the lock

Broad street pump In the Autumn of 1854, 500 people died in just 10 days in the centre of London in the worst of a series of cholera outbreaks.

Dolly tub and washboard